On April 9th, 1965, the UAR issued a propaganda stamp directed against Israel, commemorating the massacre at Der Yassin, that unfortunate village (Arab) on the outskirts of Jerusalem, whose inhabitants were caught between Jewish and Arab forces in the pangs of the birth of the State of Israel.
On April 9th, 1965, the UAR issued a propaganda stamp directed against Israel, commemorating the massacre at Deir Yassin, that unfortunate village (Arab) on the outskirts of Jerusalem, whose inhabitants were caught between Jewish and Arab forces in the pangs of the birth of the State of Israel.