JEWISH IN PORTUGAL ISSUE
I have just received the Jews In Portugal stamp issue from 5th. July 2010 from the Portuguese Philatelic Bureau.
The stamps consist of 3 stamps depicting Jewish buildings, I presume.
One depicts the Sinagogoga De Tomar. A fourth stamp comes in a Miniature sheet, which depicts Hebrew wording on it.
Credit must go to the Portuguese Philatelic Bureau, for a very attractive set.
Also available was a First Day Cover for the 3 stamps, and a large First Day Cover for the Miniature Sheet. Both of these was available with a choice of postmarks from 4 locations.
Also available, was a very attractive Souvenir folder, which was also available stamped with the stamps and Miniature Sheet, postmarked on the First Day Of Issue from the 4 locations.
The postmark locations were Lisbon, Porto, Delgada and Funchal.
